RECREATION DEPARTMENT FLEA MARKET POLICY

1. The purpose of the Flea Market is to sell EXCESS PERSONAL GOODS ONLY. Handmade crafts, collectible items (e.g. Beanie Babies, collectible cards, etc.) Private concessionaires and/or commercial vendors will not be allowed to participate.
2. Certain items are strictly prohibited from sale. These items are, but not limited to, food/snacks or beverages, combustible items, pets, illegal products, alcohol, tobacco products, reproduced copyrighted material (e.g. DVD's, CD's, etc.).
3. Set-up time begins at 8am-no early setups are authorized! Shopping hours are from 10am-4pm.
4. Vendors must remain until 4pm or be disqualified from participating in future Flea Markets.
5. OUTDOOR flea markets take place in the Courtyard of the Seabrook Elementary/Middle School. In case of inclement weather, the flea market will either be canceled. Weather determination calls will be made on Friday at 5pm, the day before the flea market.
6. When arriving, please wait for the Town of Seabrook; Recreation Department personnel to direct you. Anyone not waiting will be asked to move to the back of the queue. Vendors must remain until 4pm in order to ensure the safety of customers and staff.
7. Cancellations must be made no later than 48 hours prior to the day of the flea market in order to receive a refund! Any seller who has not arrived by 9:30am will forfeit the right to a space.
8. All payments for Flea Market spaces are due NO LATER THAN Friday, August 9th by 5pm.
9. The Town of Seabrook; Recreation Department assumes no responsibility for any loss or damages to personal belongings.
10. The Flea Market is a bring in/take out event. Sellers are responsible for disposing of their trash and leaving with everything that they brought to the event. Nothing can be left behind!

I agree to follow the above policy.
